TROPIC SUNLOUNGER

ABOUT THE TROPIC SUNLOUNGER

Introducing the Tropic Sun Lounger, a perfect blend of durability, functionality, and style. This exceptional lounge features legs made from resin reinforced with glass fibre, ensuring unparalleled strength. Its lacquered aluminium structure adds a touch of sophistication while maintaining lightweight portability. The breathable synthetic cover is easily replaceable and provides ultimate comfort during those sunny days. With five adjustable reclining positions, you can find the perfect angle to relax and unwind. The non-slip feet ensure stability, while the small wheels make it effortless to move around. Designed to be stackable, the Tropic Sun Lounger is a space-saving solution without compromising its robustness.
